

THROWBACK THURSDAY

C.A. LAWTON CO.

The C.A. Lawton Co. building, 233 N. Broadway St. in De Pere, had been operating as a foundry since 1891 when it was photographed in the 1940s. The foundry closed in 1971. The building was then used as office space until 1990. It was then converted to apartments and town homes.

Then

COURTESY OF NEVILLE PUBLIC MUSEUM OF BROWN COUNTY

Now

SARAH KLOEPPING/USA TODAY NETWORK-WISCONSIN

TOP: The C.A. Lawton Co. building in the 1940s. BOTTOM: The former C.A. Lawton Co. was renovated into apartments and townhomes after being used as an office building for about 20 years following the closure of the foundry.